

Professor Davhana Reckson Thakhathi

Chairperson

Professor Thakhathi is a professor of public administration with extensive experience in teaching, research and community engagement. He has addressed many conferences and events in more than 22 countries outside South Africa. He is a chairperson of various boards, councils and university committees. Professor Thakhathi was a member of a number of national initiatives including the Nelson Mandela Presidential Review Commission which came with good recommendations on the size and shape of the new public service. Professor Thakhathi has received many academic awards.

Erthinius Stiaan Klue

Deputy Chairperson

Stiaan is the founder of the South African Institute of Tax Professionals, where he currently still advises. He is the immediate past president of the International Tax Directors' Forum, the global forum for tax professional bodies. Stiaan completed his studies in chartered accountancy at the former Potchefstroom University, where after he started his career with Deloitte in Johannesburg. His research area is the reform of the tax profession in South Africa and he is currently studying towards his PhD. He has also published articles in various peer reviewed journals, delivered papers at conferences and is a co-author, among others, of the Silke on Tax Administration and Taxation of Individuals Simplified.

Stephen Robert Corrigan

Non-Executive Director

Stephen Corrigan obtained his B-Compt degree and completed his Articles of Clerkship with Ernst & Young in 1991, where after he decided to pursue a career in IT. He was appointed Managing Director of Pastel Accounting South Africa in 1999 and then Managing Director of Pastel Payroll until 2007. Stephen is currently the Managing Director of Palladium Business Solutions, a company that develops and distributes the Palladium Accounting and Acumatica Cloud ERP products throughout Africa.